

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Job Title: Pediatric Cardiac Anesthesiologist

Date Posted: April 1, 2020

Job Location: Wolfson Children's Hospital and Nemours Children's Specialty Care, Jacksonville, FL

Job Requirements:

- The candidate must have completed a pediatric cardiac anesthesiology fellowship or have sufficient cardiac anesthesiology experience caring for neonates and older pediatric patients with congenital cardiac disease.
- The physician must be board certified by the ABA or board eligible in anesthesiology and pediatric anesthesiology.
- The physician must possess an unrestricted license to practice medicine in the state of Florida.
- The candidate must be willing to serve as faculty teaching anesthesiology fellows and residents to care for pediatric patients with congenital cardiac disease. The candidate will also have the opportunity to work with pediatric anesthesiologists in the department of anesthesiology.
- The candidate will be credentialed to practice anesthesiology at Wolfson Children's Hospital and Nemours Children's Specialty Care and must be a member in good standing of the medical staff of both institutions.

Job Description:

Recognizing the hospital's role as a regional quaternary pediatric referral center providing cardiac diagnostic and therapeutic procedures for children from birth to adulthood, the department of pediatric anesthesiology and critical care medicine seeks to recruit a pediatric cardiac anesthesiologist to join four cardiac anesthesiologists in Jacksonville, FL. Five cardiac anesthesiologists provide anesthesia for approximately 250 cardiac surgical cases and 400-450 cardiac cath lab procedures annually. The daily schedule provides 1-2 cardiac operating suites and 1 cath lab location. The department has 18 physician FTEs and provides anesthesiology services for 15,000 cases per year. Members of the department may apply for Mayo Clinic Faculty appointments. Call responsibility for cardiac cases is shared among five physicians from home; in-house general/trauma call opportunities are available on a limited basis for additional compensation.
